Nelle

This girl has settled into Year 1 fantastically and always sets a great example for the rest of the class. She is always ready and eager to learn. She always shows kindness to others and is a helpful member of the Otters class.

Sophia

This girl always in with a smile on her face ready for the day. She always tries her best and always gets involved during class discussions, even when she's unsure. Keep being a star!

Preston R

For having such a positive attitude to learning in the classroom. He is always so proud of himself when he completes his work and he is improving every day. He is always one of the first to be on the carpet, he puts his hand up, he asks good questions and always tries to improve his work. He was so ready for year 1 as soon as he stepped in the classroom!

Archie D-L

For being such a sensible and calm presence around the classroom. He sets an excellent example to the other children. He always puts in 100% effort into his learning and he listens carefully to instructions. He is kind, friendly and he is very helpful to staff and other children. Overall, he is a lovely pupil to teach!

Ollie

This child has had such a positive start to year 2! They always try their best and have a can-do attitude all the time. They are so kind to all of their peers and always make the right choice, making them such a good role model! I have no doubt that with the impressive attitude that this child has that they will do so well in year 2!

Erin

This child never fails to put a smile on my face daily! They certainly have earned a lot of happy house points for their class! They are working hard in year 2 and have already improved on things that they find a bit tricky. They are working hard on their emotions and understanding and I just love this effort! This child has many lovely stories to share and generally makes the classroom a happy place to be!

Acer G

For making a super start to Year 3. He always tries his best, showing resilience and listening how to improve his work. He is kind and considerate to others and has excellent manners. Well done Acer.

Mia H

Mia is such an excellent role model for Year 3. She is always ready to learn, listens carefully and produces work of a high standard. She is an absolute star and a pleasure to teach.

Aubree -

This child is kind, friendly and always willing to help others. They care a lot about the people around them and approach each day with a positive attitude. They put 100% effort in all tasks and demonstrate great resilience. It is clear they love learning and school, and it is a pleasure to have them in the classroom.

Natalia

This child always tries their hardest and approaches every day with enthusiasm and a smile. They are polite, caring, and a great role model for others. Their work is always beautifully presented, with neat handwriting that shows the care they put into it. They should be very proud of all their hard work.

Lucia C

It has been a fantastic start to the school year for this child, who has shown what it truly means to Be Happy every single day. She approaches every task with a positive attitude, a big smile, and a determination to do her very best. No matter what is happening around her, she stays focussed, calm, and ready to learn, showing wonderful resilience and maturity. Her consistency, cheerful outlook, and effort make her a brilliant role model for others. Well done, for such an outstanding start to Year 4! Keep up sharing those skills.

Elliana S

This child has had an amazing start to Year 4, showing that being happy can shine through in quiet and thoughtful ways. Although she is shy, she has so much to offer, and her gentle determination and positive attitude have really stood out. She works consistently hard, never lets distractions get in her way, and always gives her best effort. Her calm focus and quiet confidence make her a wonderful example of how to demonstrate learning behaviours. Well done for beginning the year with such positivity and strength!

Isaac

he has had a brilliant start to year 5. I have been really impressed with his fantastic attitude to learning. He tries his best in all lessons and always wants to challenge himself. Well done.

Sharon

She impresses me in every lesson with her positive attitude. If she makes a mistake or needs help she always asks for help and takes on board feedback. She particularly enjoys maths and the challenge of reasoning and problem solving.

5/6HL

Penny

She has settled into our school so well that it feels like she's always been part of our class! She's so kind and caring, which has helped her build a lovely group of friends. She shines in class by always putting her hand up and getting involved in discussions. She's now part of the school's football team and has blown us away with how brilliant she is! She has definitely earned this VIP award - we're so proud of her. Well done, you!!

Isla

This child has shown what a mature, kind, and caring person they are. They've had a fantastic start to the year and always brings a smile to the classroom each day. She has shown how talented she is in art and has started creating an amazing final piece. She more than deserved this VIP award! Well done, you!!

Isabella

I am so pleased to have this girl in our class this year! She is so helpful, kind and hard working and just a dream to teach. Her enthusiasm is infectious and makes other smile with her positivity. She gets herself stuck into everything school has to offer and is a brilliant ambassador in a range of subjects. I can't wait to see what the rest of year 6 brings her!

Harvey

for having an excellent attitude to everything that year 6 has to offer. He is hard-working, sensible, kind, helpful and just a joy to teach. I always enjoy reading his writing and I am looking forward to seeing it flourish as the year goes on. He's a role model to others- always doing the right thing and impressing the adults in our classroom. Well done!
