

Rainforest Oracy Challenge: "A Voice for the Rainforest"

The Challenge

You are going to prepare and perform a short speech to help people understand why rainforests matter and why we must protect them.

You may choose ONE creative role from the list below to speak from:

Choose Your Role

-  A 400-year-old rainforest tree
-  A rainforest animal whose habitat is disappearing
-  A scientist or explorer discovering the rainforest for the first time
-  A child from a rainforest community
-  A news reporter sharing breaking news from the rainforest
-  A rainforest guardian protecting endangered species

Your Mission

Your speech must:

- Explain what rainforests are like
- Include at least 3 amazing rainforest facts
- Describe why rainforests are important to the planet
- Explain what is happening to them
- End with a powerful message or call to action

Time Limit

- 1-2 minutes

(Enough time to impress — not too long!)

Performance Challenge

Try to include:

- Clear expression and emotion
- Strong eye contact
- Confident voice projection
- At least one dramatic or persuasive sentence

Extra Challenge (Optional)

Include:

- A rhetorical question
- A short quote
- A prop or small visual aid
- A dramatic opening line
